Dear Mr Daugherty,

Dr King has passed to me your letter postmarked 22 January 2000 enclosing a £20 note. I thought it would be appropriate for me to reply to the letter since as I have explained on other occasions every attempt has been made, both by the Department and the University centrally, to give you full and clear answers to the various questions you have raised over the last few years. The matters you have raised have been considered at length and in the course of a long correspondence with you every attempt has been made to provide you with the information you have requested.

I have no wish whatsoever to cause you further irritation or disappointment but I have no choice but to return the £20 under separate cover by registered mail. If you refuse to accept it and return it to the University I will arrange, as on previous occasions, for the money to be donated to the Campaign for Cancer Research.

Yours sincerely,

DET Nicholson
